make this a precedent, and remove from office for no good reason. He doubted whether the removal would be proper, expedient or reasonable, and argued that it would impair the integrity of the judiciary, and would be a violation of the spirit of the constitution. Wendell Phillips closed the hearing for the petitioners, citing mainly the arguments used by him on a former o

THE FUSION MEETING. A meeting of the Committee of Arrangements of the Central Democratic Union was held last night, in Tam many Hall, John Cochrane in the chair, and L. F. Harrison acting as secretary. The details of the meeting to be held to night was arranged, and the various subcommittees made their reports and were discharged. The meeting was private, but we understand that much The meeting was private, but we understand that much dissatisfaction was expressed at the niggardly conduct of some of the Custom House officers, who were not quite liberal enough with their funds to support the movement, and the officials in the City Hall had to be called apon, one of whom paid as high as $50 to promote the success of the meeting.

Among others, we understand that Senators Cass and loughas have given positive assurances of being present at the meeting to night.

The committee adjourned at an early hour.

The regular monthly meeting of the Young Men's Soft Shell Committee was held hast night at Tammany Hall, in the Coal Hole, H. P. Carnes in the chair, and David B. McCullough and Samuel L. Houghton acting as secreta-ries. The evening was spent in appointing the standing committees for the enuing year, and otherwise perfect-ing the organization. The by-laws were also acted upon, after which the committee adjourned to the first Tues-day in April.
